

Deliverable 2: SurveyInstruments.pdf

1. Quantitative Feedback (Likert Scale)

Please rate your agreement (1: Strongly Disagree to 5: Strongly Agree):

- Control Intuition: I found the controls and general character movement to be intuitive.
- Mechanics: The "Recall" mechanic felt responsive and easy to trigger.
- Momentum: I understood how to keep my momentum while catching the package.
- Enemy Interaction: I felt throwing the package at an enemy was an effective way to defeat enemies.
- Enemy Threat: The enemies felt sufficiently threatening and forced me to change my pathing.
- Visual Clarity: I felt that the animations of the character matched his actions.
- Level Design: I enjoyed the overall design of the levels.
- Incentives: I felt the need to grab all collectables (stamps) on the level.
- Replayability: Seeing the final delivery stats made me want to retry each level.
- Narrative Engagement: I felt immersed in the dialogue and was motivated to read it.
- General Difficulty: The overall difficulty of the levels felt appropriate and fair.

2. Play Matrix 1: Pacing vs. Precision

Place an "X" in the quadrant that best describes your experience:

	High Precision (Required exact timing)	Low Precision (Forgiving timing)
Fast Pacing
Slow Pacing

3. Play Matrix 2: Agency vs. Guidance

Place an "X" in the quadrant that best describes your experience:

	High Player Agency (I chose my path)	Low Player Agency (I felt restricted)
Clear Goals
Vague Goals

4. Structured Interview Questions

1. General Experience: On a scale of 1-10, how fun was the experience, and why?
2. Highlights: What did you enjoy most about DeadEx?
3. Frustration Points: Were there any specific enemies, jumps, or areas that felt unfair or frustrating?
4. Aesthetics & Cohesion: How did you feel about the graphics? Do the story and visual style match the gameplay "feel"?
5. Movement Refinement: If you could change one thing about the character's movement, what would it be?
6. Game Refinement: If you could change one thing about DeadEx: Dungeon Delivery, what would it be?